

My family and our whole church of over 1000 has frequently commented on the quality and value of Klove 89.9 from the pulpit and from our church leadership. To lose its worthwhile effect would be a great loss for Lawton and the surrounding towns. No other radio station broadcasts with such a positive and encouraging message. It's loss would be a sad commentary on where America's values are headed. Keep the FM translators --- Please